Will our country contributors please make an effort to get their correspondence in as early as Monday or at the latest Tuesday evening of each week. Mail it so it will reach us by that time.

We are glad to correct a mistake we made last week in regard to the ball game between the Sparta and Forsyth basketball teams.

The game was played at Sparta not at Branson, and the personnel of the Forsyth team were Cleo Smith, Jess Williams, Vernon Davidson, Pof. Crawford, Earl Hicks, Roy Smith, Curran Melton and A. L. Wyke. The score was given correctly 27 to 13 in favor of Forsyth.

Our town seems quite dull after the busy stir of court week.

The creek and river are very high, but people are still able to cross at the ferry.

George Baughman has bought land near Protom and will move there shortly.

James Harding from McKinney Bend spent the week end with his sister Mrs. J. R. Gideon.

Gay Everett expects to leave next Monday for Jetmore, Kansas, to run a linotype. He will also preach for a church there.

J. R. Gideon returned Saturday evening from Jefferson City. He reports the Clerks' convention one of the best he ever attended.

Nothing has happened in our town worthy of note this week except that it has rained and rained and still promises more rain.

Poor health can be largely prevented, good health can be gained, through a Red Cross course in home hygiene and care of the sick.

Don't forget that your membership in the Red Cross, and the dollar that you pay for that membership, will help fight disease in your own community.

U. G. Johnson and Guy Everett, of the Baptist church, closed a meeting, lasting a week, Saturday night with two professions and renewed interest.

Mrs. Laura L. Bowe, who has had charge of the club house at Powersite, stopped in Forsyth Monday night on her way to Springfield, where she will locate for a while.

Mr. Frank Shaffer of Protom made the Republican a pleasant visit Tuesday morning. He extended his subscription a year and secured bills for his sale on Nov. 6.

FOR SALE—150 high grade Angora goats. See them at farm on Walnut Shade road four miles northwest of Forsyth.

Ira Parrish and Herb Phillips went fishing the first of the week and made the catch of the season—fifty five in all, crappie and cat, ranging from one-fourth to five pounds in weight.

Lawrence Fallin and John Rogers, representing Fallin Bros., of Springfield, purchased mules from Abe Hankins, paying three hundred twenty five dollars for one and two hundred ten for another.

"The great war caused the death of seven millions (in all nations together) in four years. Influenza caused the death of six millions in two years." Are you prepared to combat Influenza this year? Let the Red Cross help you.

If you see a peculiar lift to the corner of Oscar Parrish's mouth you may know he is thinking of the day he spent with the postmaster wielding a cross-cut saw. The P. M. still lives, but Oscar smilingly informs us that "he don't look like anything."

Col. R. C. Ford, Director of Red Cross work in the eastern part of the county, has appointed men and women in each voting precinct in the eastern district to push the Red Cross drive of November 2 to 11, and has asked all the preachers to preach Sunday morning on the subject of the Red Cross. The quota for this county is 1500 members.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. McConkey had the pleasure of entertaining an old friend, L. A. Utz of Rialto, California last week. He was here looking after his farm near Taneyville. He owns a fine orange grove in California and reports a very prosperous year.

When Mr. Bennett and his auto load of school ma'ams got just beyond Swan Thursday morning, a hub gave way and it looked as though their journey was to be ended right there. They went back to Swan and fortunately found a new hub, so their journey was resumed with less than an hour's delay. Fortune does sometimes smile and turn our way.

WE WILL PAY A STRAIGHT SALARY $35.00 per week and expenses to man or woman with rig to introduce EUREKA EGG PRODUCER.

Judge Burns has been at the farm since Saturday. Went out to gather corn, but—oh, my!

Last Thursday morning Messrs. Bennett and Crawford put their cars in action and took the teachers to Springfield to attend the Southwest Teachers' Association. The party consisted of John W. and Mrs. Bennett, Anna Phillips and Rachel Church, W. T. and Mrs. Crawford, Nidra Cook and Helen Brown. Miss Lillie Essary went by boat and train. Other teachers from Taney were Mabel Mathieson, Beulah Jackson, Poncie Savage and Ruth Nance. The Forsyth delegation got back through the rain Sunday, claiming that they had had an enjoyable and profitable trip.

J. L. Homier and wife of Des Moines, Iowa, stopped in Forsyth the first of the week on their wedding tour.

Wm. Aldridge, J. P., and A. G. Shelton, both of Protom, were in Forsyth Tuesday. Mr. Shelton has lately sold his farm to George Baughman.

There is a chance that some good work may be done soon on the road up the hill and on toward Taneyville. By joint action of the town, the special road district and the inter-county highway commissioners, sufficient funds will be available to do the work in permanent shape. Here's hoping that those in authority will get together and do something.

CAN YOU READ
YOUR TITLE CLEAR
TO YOUR LANDS

A Wise Man has his Deeds and other Title Papers Recorded. He should know whether all Prior Deeds and Patents are Recorded. He should also know whether all Deeds of Trust, Mortgages and Liens on his Lands are satisfied. He should also know whether all Taxes on his Lands have been paid and whether his Lands or any part thereof have ever been Sold for Taxes and a cloud thereby placed on the same. To tell him this, by preparing and furnishing him Complete and Dependable Abstracts of Titles, and to Cure Defects in Titles, is Our Business.
